Profile of qualification for interns

Company name

IT Inkubator GmbH | 2 possible traineeships | https://itinkubator.de

About the internship employer

IT Inkubator (ITI) supports prospective founders and scientists to further develop the economic potential of IT-related technologies. IT and business specialists build innovative project teams to jointly go through a structured process from idea to product and market. ITI offers the ideal setting for developing software, business models and sales strategies with a strong customer-oriented focus.

The candidate will work within these company divisions

Software development, innovation management and technology transfer

Required soft skills and qualifications (good english language skills are mandatory)

Startup-Know-how, team spirit and high commitment

We will be able to receive students of these study fields

Business students, computer science and IT specialists